

Why Buy at the Top of the Market?

Create your own value in the sought-after Buffehr Creek neighborhood

This home offers the opportunity to make a few simple, personal changes to surfaces and finishes that can add great value to the property, which already sits on a premium lot in a private neighborhood... creating value for years to come.

The virtual renderings merely change furniture, flooring, cabinets and countertops—the home features vertical volume, an open main level floorplan, a lower level with options to expand, plus breathtaking filtered Gore Range and Ski Slope views, sun and a cascading backyard.

What is this home missing? Highway noise and a savvy, creative buyer.
